THE ULTIMATE RACE WEEKEND PARTY

Where else can you see multiple sanctioning bodies working together to bring you over 50 years of racing excitement?

What's on Track:

Whether you love to race or just spectate, the Mitty is the place for racing fans.

HSR Historic Racing: From the Ferraris and Cobras of the '50s and '60s to the incredible IMSA GTP cars of the '80s and '90s, The Mitty allows you to relive the most thrilling battles in motorsports history. Plus, famous Formula 1 cars from the last five decades will take to the track for a rare appearance.

Group 44 Tribute: Watch as the famous Group 44 factory Triumphs, MGs and Jaguars are united on track for the first time ever in a tribute to one of the most successful race teams of all time. Meet legends like grand marshal and team owner Bob Tullius.

Autocross a New Lotus: Who says there are no free rides? Lotus is offering autocross runs in their newly revised Elise, and ticket holders will be able wring out the car at Road Atlanta's famous Turn 7 test course. This opportunity is open to all licensed drivers at no extra charge—first come, first served.

Featuring THE CARS OF JAGUAR

Kumho Challenge: Race in an actual autocross competition in identically prepped new Mazda MX-5s courtesy of Kumho Tires. The fastest driver wins a set of Kumho tires, and we'll have plenty of other prizes as well. Best of all, this competition is free to spectators.

World's Largest Spec Miata Race: Can you believe the Miata's been around for 20 years? To celebrate, Mazda and Traqmate are hosting the world's largest Spec Miata race at The Mitty.

The Tire Rack Club Parade Laps: Sign up for parade laps around the historic Road Atlanta track, courtesy of The Tire Rack. Parade laps are available on a first-come, first-served basis.

Playboy Mazda MX-5 Cup: SCCA's Pro Series for Mazda's Spec MX-5 is one of the weekend's most popular and intense races. Prepare yourself for the roar of dozens of roadsters running three-wide into Turn 1.

What's Off Track:

GRM Speedfest 25th Anniversary Party: Grassroots Motorsports magazine is celebrating its 25th year. Join us Saturday night for a big birthday bash, where you can meet the staff and check out their project cars.

Moss Motors Pub: No car weekend is complete without some beer and darts. Join staff members from Moss Motors and Classic Motorsports magazine in our re-creation of an old English pub on the hill.

Sports Cars of the World: We're gathering hundreds of cars from around the globe on one lawn, and it's free to enter. Don't miss the Jaguar Car Corral sponsored by XKs Unlimited.

Swap Meet: Take part in the Southeast's biggest sports and race car parts swap meet. Free spots will be available for private parties to sell parts and cars.

G-Force Project Car Corral: See your favorite Classic Motorsports project cars, from our 1957 Triumph TR3 race car to our Group 44 GT6+.

Slot Car Racing: Always wanted to race a classic, but too worried about wrecking the car? Try your hand at BRM slot cars Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Best part? If your racer flies off the track, there's no harm done.

Vendor Row: More than 50 vendors are scheduled to show off their wares, from the latest racing parts to automobilia and good food. You'll even find a portable dyno where you can test your car's power output.

2009 partners include:

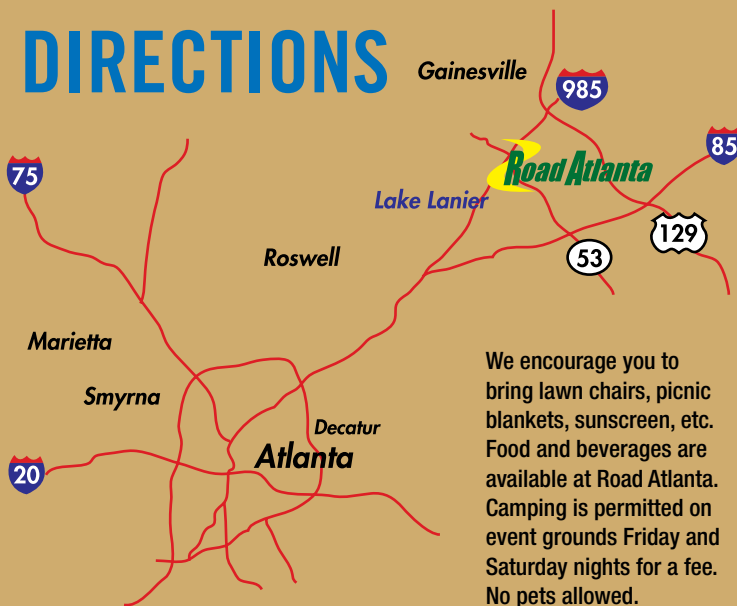

is a member and volunteer organization dedicated to giving historic cars a racing venue. It also gives spectators the chance to see past winners of great events such as the 12 Hours of Sebring, 24 Hours of Le Mans and the Rolex 24 At Daytona. Events are as educational as they are hair-raising, as fans are exposed to pieces of history at the track.

Road Atlanta is widely recognized as one of the premier road courses in the world. The 2.54-mile, 12-turn road course is extremely challenging for competitors, and the 700-acre park-like facility is fan friendly.
